International Journal of Comparative and Applied Criminal Justice
Vol. 1, Nos. 1 & 2 (Spring & Fall 1977)

CONTENTS Spring, 1977

1 The British Police Experience
SIR ERIC ST. JOHNSTON

17 Problems of Method in Comparative Criminology
GRAEME R. NEWMAN

33 The Organization, Structure and Activities of Criminalistics Institutions in the USSR and Socialist Countries of Eastern Europe
ILYA ZELDES

39 Aquatic Crime: A New Horizon in Criminal Justice Research
RONALD G. IACOVETTA

47 Making Corrections Corrective
CHARLES ZASTROW

57 The Teaching of Comparative and World Criminology in Graduate Schools of Sociology and Criminal Justice
LEONARD J. HIPPCHEN

73 An Analysis of Social Distance of Offenders
PHILLIP R. KUNZ

83 A Model of Interorganizational Arrangements for Jail Service Delivery
BARBARA R. PRICE and CHARLES L. NEWMAN

CONTENTS Fall, 1977

93 Some Economic Implications of Third World Roguery: A Case Study of Monrovia, Liberia
MARY FISH

103 Typologies in Comparative Criminal Justice Research
GALAN M. JANEKSELA

111 A Cultural Perspective Toward Juvenile Delinquency
LAURENCE FRENCH

123 Isolation of English Juvenile Offenders by Classification: An American Perspective
FRANCIS E. DEVINE

135 The Juvenile Court as an Organization and Decision-Making System
THOMAS BLOMBERG

147 A Survey of State Crime Laboratories
CHESTER L. QUARLES

161 A Framework for Comparison of Intensive and Special Probation Projects
ALAN L. PORTER and JERRY BANKS

173 Legal and Psychiatric Parody: An Enigma in Criminal Justice
DENNIS L. PECK

181 Human Skeletal Indentification
PAUL M. LIN

© International Journal of Comparative and Applied Criminal Justice